Arose from necessary Social Protocol:

Friends of Chinatown is a dedicated group of volunteers who Calgary's downtown.

Their hard work contributes to Calgary's downtown revitalization through hosting ongoing classes, events, and educational programs. Examples include free Taichi classes, lantern-making classes, guided tours of Chinatown, holiday markets, social clubs, Cantonese conversation clubs, and clay workshops.

These programs are valued by our Chinese Calgarians but also welcome all Calgarians to learn about and participate in Chinese culture in our city and many of them receive support from the City of Calgary.

Friends of Chinatown and their volunteers provide insight and advocacy for issues facing all downtown residents, including many Ward 8 constituents, like public safety, transit, and access to services and amenities.

They further advocate for city strategies affecting downtown such as Tomorrow's Chinatown, which includes the Chinatown Cultural Plan and the Chinatown Area Redevelopment Plan.

Their Chinese New Year Dinner is a celebration of one of the most important events in Chinese culture and our attendance is an opportunity to support the Friends of Chinatown and their volunteers. It is also a chance to recognize the history of Calgary's Chinatown and its role in the cultural fabric of our city.

Arose from necessary Social Protocol:

Sien Lok Society of Calgary's annual Chinese New Year dinner is a longstanding cultural celebration and community gathering within Calgary's Chinese community. Councillor Schmidt's participation supports relationship-building, demonstrates respect for cultural traditions, and enables direct engagement with community leaders, organizations, and Ward 8 residents.

Admission to the event was structured as a charitable donation to the Sien Lok Society of Calgary. The donation is considered a necessary social protocol expense because it enabled official representation at one of the most important events in Chinese culture, allowed the opportunity to recognize the history of Calgary's Chinatown and supported constructive engagement with fellow Ward 8 residents, Calgarians and stakeholders.
